From Thursday March 12. to Monday March 16. 1701.

St. James's, March 13. The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, the Lord Biſhop of London being indiſpoſed.

To the Queen's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop and Clergy of the City of London.

May it pleaſe Your Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

TO permit us, Your moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop and Clergy of Your City of London, after we have condoled with Your Majeſty upon the great and inexpreſſible Loſs of our late Renowned Sovereign of Glorious Memory, moſt heartily to Congratulate Your moſt Sacred Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms.

That great and exemplary Piety towards God, which Your Majeſty hath ſhewn throughout the whole courſe of Your Life, that particular Regard and Eſteem with which you have been always pleaſed to favour the true Intereſt of the Church of England; that firmneſs and ſteadineſs of Mind with which you have conſtantly diſcountenanced Prophaneneſs and Immorality; and that Generous and Noble Concern which Your Majeſty hath upon all Occaſions expreſſed, both for our Religion and Civil Rights, as by Law eſtabliſhed, have begotten a firm Aſſurance in the Minds of all Your Subjects, that Your future Reign will be both highly glorious to Your Self, and extreamly happy to this Church and Nation. Our Hearts are full of Joy, and we can't ſufficiently expreſs that great Pleaſure and Satisfaction we ſenſibly feel, in having over us ſuch a Princeſs, as, we are ſure, will make it the great Buſineſs of Her Life to promote the Glory of God, the Service of his Church, and the general Good and Welfare of all her Subjects.

And we further beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, of our conſtant and inviolable Faith and Allegiance to Your Majeſty, and that we will to the utmoſt of our Power, in our ſeveral Stations, ſupport and Defend Your Majeſty's Lawful and Rightful Title to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms, againſt the pretended Prince of Wales, and all the Enemies of Your Crown and Dignity, as alſo the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Proteſtant Line, according to the Acts of Settlement.

May that Great God, who hath placed Your Majeſty upon the Throne by his Providence, protect and ſupport You in it by his Mercy to be a long and laſting Bleſſing to this Church and Kingdom.

To which Addreſs Her Majeſty was pleaſed moſt graciouſly to anſwer,

I Am very well pleaſed with the Marks of Your Good Will, you may be ſure I ſhall always have a particular Care of the Church.

The Lord Biſhop of Rocheſter Dean of Weſtminſter, and the Chapter of that Cathedral, attended Her Majeſty with the following Addreſs, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Ormond.

To the Queen's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Dean and Chapter of St. Peter's, Weſtminſter.

May it pleaſe Your Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Chapter of Your Collegiate Church of St. Peter's, Weſtminſter, do humbly beg Leave to Condole with Your Majeſty for the deplorable Loſs of Our late Gracious Sovereign King William, and to Congratulate Your Majeſty's Quiet, and happy Acceſſion to the Throne.

It is, Madam, our great Honour, that we are of the Foundation of a Queen, Your Majeſty's Predeceſſor of ever bleſſed Memory, Queen Elizabeth, whoſe many Years and Felicities, from the bottom of our Souls, we wiſh Your Majeſty.

We ſhall always moſt heartily pray, That Your Majeſty may preſerve the Ballance of Europe, ſupport Your Allies, protect the Proteſtant Intereſt abroad, and Reign in the Hearts of Your Subjects at home, with the ſame Succeſs and Glory as She did.

We are entirely aſſured, That Your Majeſty will ever Defend and Cheriſh the Church of England, of which (next under God) that Queen was the chief Eſtabliſher, and Your Majeſty has been always an illuſtrious Ornament, and a great Example of the true Piety, and Devotion it profeſſes.

We cannot but eſteem it as the great Happineſs of our Lives, that, by God's Bleſſing, we ſhall be Eye-witneſſes and Aſſiſtants, when the Imperial Crown of Your Anceſtors is placed on Your Sacred Head, in that Church whereof by Royal Favour we are Members.

To the Queen's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, and the reſt of the Commiſſioners of the Lieutenancy of Your City of London.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

THE unſpeakable Loſs which theſe Kingdoms have ſuſtained, by the deceaſe of the Heroick and Magnanimous Prince William the Third, (our late Glorious Monarch and Deliverer) could not but deeply affect our Minds with dark and melancholy Ideas.

But ſince theſe black Clouds are intirely diſperſed, by Your Majeſty's aſcending the Throne of theſe Your Kingdoms; we humbly crave Leave to expreſs the Joy and Satisfaction that we received thereupon, by a moſt hearty Congratulation of Your Sacred Majeſty upon Your Acceſſion to theſe Your Crowns.

Your Majeſty's late moſt Gracious Declaration in Council hath demonſtrated to the whole World, That the preſervation of our Religion, our Laws, and our Liberties at home, and the Liberty of all Europe abroad, were the Noble Ends which Your Majeſty deſigned, in taking upon You the Government of theſe Kingdoms.

We therefore humbly beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That nothing ſhall be wanting on our Parts, which may be expected from the moſt Loyal, moſt Dutiful, and moſt Grateful Subjects, that may contribute to the Eaſe, Safety, and Security of Your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government; And that thoſe Arms wherewith we are intruſted, ſhall always be ready in our Hands, and directed by our Hearts, for Support and Defence of the ſame, againſt the Power of France, the pretended Prince of Wales, (the Inſtrument by him ſet up to diſturb Your Quiet) and all other Invaders of Your Majeſty's Right.

The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Hon. Maurice Aſhley Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament of the County of Wilts, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery Lord High Admiral of England, and Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

To the Queen's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Wilts, met and aſſembled at the Aſſizes for the ſaid County at the City of New Sarum, on the Eleventh Day of March, 1701. in the Firſt Year of Your Majeſty's Reign.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

YOur Majeſty's Succeſſion to the Crown of England being ſo well ſecured, ſeems by a wiſe Precaution to have been intended to alleviate the great Affliction befalling this Nation in the Death of our late Sovereign King William the Third, of ever bleſſed Memory, which we cannot mention but with the moſt ſenſible Grief, demonſtrating how dear and valuable to us our Crowned Heads are.

But whilſt we regret ſo great a Loſs, we alſo beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne, and to declare our entire Satisfaction therein, promiſing Your Majeſty our ready and chearful Concurrence, with all Aſſurances which are or ſhall be given Your Majeſty by the Repreſentative Body of Your People for the Support of Your Government, whereby to enable Your Majeſty to render Your Reign Great and Glorious, and Your Subjects truly Happy; And we hope, that Providence hath reſerved the Honour for Your Majeſty, to put a ſtop to the Exorbitant Power of France, as Queen Elizabeth (of Glorious Memory) did heretofore to the Ambitious Deſigns of Spain; To which purpoſe we pray, That all the Bleſſings of Heaven may ever attend Your Royal Perſon and Government.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received likewiſe very graciouſly.

Warſaw,
